

CANTINA ROOFTOP

WHY HERE: There are many festive Mexican bars and restaurants in New York City these days but very few with views of the city. Indoor/outdoor Times Square spot Cantina Rooftop meets those needs with tacos, gorditas and more, along with a variety of 'Ritas and house specialties like the Rude Cosmo (Milagro reposado tequila, lime, cranberry, triple sec and bitters).

WHY NOW: In addition to the rooftop, you can opt for the recently opened Cantina 48 on the second floor. The copper-hued bar with cool underlighting is more sedate but offers much of the same menu as upstairs.
